

Colonel Shannon, ICAPS

9 January 1947

Assistant Director, Reports and Estimates

Letter, 30 Dec. 1946, Dana G. Munro to Dr. Montague

1. In a letter to Dr. Montague, 30 December 1946, Professor Dana G. Munro of the School of Public and International Affairs, Princeton University, says: " I am interested in your reference to openings for younger men and I should like to talk with you some time about the sort of training which would fit them for your work. Do you plan to employ only men who have had graduate training, or would there be opportunities for keen, relatively mature A. B.s? We have several undergraduates who might be interested and some of them have already had experience in intelligence work in the Armed Forces."
2. Dr. Munro is a well known authority on Latin American affairs, was once, I think, Minister to Haiti, and has had policy positions in the State Department. He is a man of common sense and character, and his assistance in recruitment of personnel for SIG would be very useful. I am sure.
3. The matter is referred to you with the idea that you may wish to arrange that he be contacted in due course.
